KCLS Report:

Presentation to City Council

- There is a July 10th joint presentation for the City Council by KCLS and the Library Advisory Committee. At other city councils Alice and Katie Boyce, a KCLS colleague have provided an introduction, why we are here, stats for the library, resources, programs & outreach, and summer reading programs. The LAC members will follow up by asking for a declaration by the City Council in support of intellectual freedom and the American Library Association's week in September 2025, Read for Your Rights.
- Additional information could be provided about:
  - History of the library and the mall relationship, library growth with mall growth
  - Collaboration with 3rd Place books.
  - The place of the LFP library in the city and community.
- Proposed timing:
  - 3 min intro
  - 3 min programs and resources
  - 3 min intellectual freedom.
  - Questions

- Discussed sample proclamation, looked at Kirkland's proclamation and the American Library Association's Bill of Rights
- Alice will contact Kirkland regarding use theirs as a model and send a copy to LAC members.
- Plan for requesting to be on the agenda for an August Council Meeting to request a vote on the intellectual freedom proclamation.
- Planning for attendance: Eloise, Lolly and Ann. Eloise will be presenting.
- Alice will be following up on other details.

City Report:

- Alexa met with the city:
  - Position 1 is still open. There is now a direct link on our website to the application. <https://lakeforestpark-wa.municodemeeetings.com/bc/application>
- The city has updated the language about what we do!

“Supports and promotes reading as a life-long activity in our community through programs including a common book READS program during the summer, outreach at the Farmers’ Market for summer adult and children reading programs, and encouraging the freedom to read.”
- Octavia Butler Committee has had a community event and has sponsored an Octavia Butler mural which is in Third Place Books.
