Question: What if I had an account with the previous payment agency, Linebarger? Did my account automatically transfer over to the new payment agency (nCourt)?

Answer: If you had an active account on March 1, 2020 with the previous payment agency (Linebarger), your account was transferred to the new payment agency (nCourt). To verify the transfer of your UP account:

- Go to the website www.upprogramwapayments.com
- Click the Returning User button
- Enter your email address (should be the same email address you used with the previous payment agency (Linebarger))
- Select Reset Password and enter a new password

If you do not have access to the system after following the steps above, your account was probably in default prior to March 1, 2020, and you will need to submit an application as a New User. If you believe this is incorrect, please call 206-433-1840 for assistance.

Question: What if I have outstanding tickets in a court that is not participating in the UP Program?

Answer: You are encouraged to contact the court directly to see what options are available to you to take care of the outstanding balance. Many courts in this state have relicensing programs that you may meet the qualifications for participation.

Question: What happens if I do not make my monthly payment?

Answer: Your account will be in default status, and the courts may assign your cases/tickets to a collection agency and notify DOL. DOL may suspend your license for non-payment.
